

"To me, Latinx Resistance means being proud of what my ancestors gave up for me to survive and thrive and to live in a way that makes them proud, as well as the future generations. Living by example."

-Racquel
Seattle, WA